CURRENCY HOUSE

Currency House Inc. is a non-profit, voluntary association dedicated to asserting the value of the performing arts in public life by research, debate and publication. We invite your support and encouragement in this important task.

Donations to Currency House are tax deductible under section 30-15 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997. Currency House is also income tax exempt under the charity tax concessions.

We are particularly seeking a group of individuals prepared to commit $1,500 over twelve months towards the publication of Platform Papers. Platform Papers is a quarterly essay written by people of long experience in the arts, with the aim of gaining a better understanding of the process and conditions of arts practice, by defining problems of both artist and management and seeking a way forward in the public interest.

If you would like to share in this work you could an important contribution to rethinking the way we perceive our artists and restoring their voice to the national conversation.

Yes, I would like to contribute to Platform Papers.
